Assignment 6

Unit outcomes addressed in this activity:

- Explore the legal definition of a food additive
- Discuss the approval process for food ingredients

Course Outcome(s)

NS440-3: Explain laws and regulations related to food safety and food quality.

Instructions

In a 1–2 page essay, explain how you would educate consumers about food additives. Assume the role of a nutrition or health and wellness education professional. Take into consideration that this is a “hot topic” with many consumers questioning why the ingredient statements on processed foods are long and unfamiliar. Include information on food additives and how they are regulated and provide examples of food additives.
