Project Management for Health Care Information Technology Proposal, Part 2

Description

In Units 3, 5, and 9, you will develop a project management for health care information technology proposal. As you move through parts 1, 2, and 3 of the proposal you will adjust your ideas based on introduction of new concepts and instructor feedback. Key elements critical for each section of the proposal include:

● Unit 3, Part 1
  ○ Review the beginning and expansion of information technology within healthcare.
  ○ Explain critical areas of information technology personnel, cost, security, and regulation when creating a healthcare information technology proposal.

● Unit 5, Part 2
  ○ Examine the role of the advance practice nurse (APN) as a leaders and change agent in healthcare information technology.
  ○ Develop a budget for securing and implementing healthcare information technology.
  ○ Explore the use of cloud computing within healthcare information technology.

● Unit 9, Part 3
  ○ Apply evidence based practice (EBP) when selecting, implementing, and evaluating a healthcare information technology proposal, specifically the electronic healthcare record (EHR).

Directions:

The finished Unit 5 Assignment should be a maximum of twenty pages including the revised Unit 3 Assignment and excluding the title page and references.

In Part 2 of the proposal, include these critical elements:
1. Discussion of an operational and financial change model you plan to use with a detailed cost analysis and budget. You must provide a rationale for your model selection.

3. Explain how you are planning to adopt information technology cloud services that fit the goals of your proposal. You must include a discussion of the applications you will include in the cloud complete with rationale for selection and why?

4. Discuss at least three risks and benefits for implementing and using cloud-computing services.

- End here and do not write a conclusion. You will revise this Assignment using graded instructor feedback and then add to this Assignment in Unit 9 when you complete Part 3 of the proposal.
- Part 2 should be a maximum of 20 pages including the revised Unit 3, Part 1 and excluding the title page and references.
